INDIANA CHILDREN IMPROPERLY FED

(By Associated Press) COLUMBUS, Ind., Dec. 18.—Declarations on the part of parents of boys and girls attending the public schools of Columbus that their children were undernourished because of the high cost of living has resulted in an investigation of conditions, with startling disclosures.

The investigation, as far as it has proceeded, shows that 46 per cent of them are more than four pounds under weight. Only 12 per cent of the thousands that attend school have been found to be normal in poundage.

AMUSEMENTS

HAMMERSTEIN'S GRANDDAUGHTER AT BUTLER TODAY.

Elaine Hammerstein, daughter of Arthur Hammerstein and granddaughter of the late Oscar, both noted stage impresarios, dislikes monotony of the stage, but loves the movies. It may sound odd, but Elaine has a way of upsetting preconceived notions. In fact, she is the mistress of her destiny in a decidedly forceful manner for a girl of her age and beauty.

Today she will appear for the first time as the Butler, in the noted stage success "The Country Cousin" which is said to carry even a deeper appeal than did the play on the general public, but also brought forth words of praise from President Wilson and the late Theodore Roosevelt.

After he had seen the play, Roosevelt said: "The Country Cousin" is a first class American play."

In its filming as a Seiznick picture, the famous play of Booth Tarkington and Julian Street has received some sympathetic and colorfully dramatic treatment to enhance its worth as an interest-holding story typical of American life today.

Added to the feature will be the latest Pathe News. Tomorrow, Wm. S. (Bill) Hart, in a typical Hart picture entitled "The Border Wireless" coming Monday, Olive Thomas, in "The Spite Bride"

AUSTIN WOMAN BURNT ALIVE

AUSTIN, Nev., Dec. 18.—Last Tuesday morning Candido Mestrat, who keeps a small furnishing goods store on Main street, built the kitchen fire and went about the morning's duties.

He heard a cry of distress and rushing back to the living rooms in the rear of the store, found the kitchen literally filled with flames, and his wife frantically struggling to get out of the room. Her clothing was in flames and she was blinded from burns, her entire head being shorn in the midst of a mass of flame. Her clothing was saturated with gasoline and burning fiercely.

Mr. Mestrat, who has lost one of his hands, seized the suffering woman and pushed her out of doors, throwing her down and rolling her in the snow, and succeeded in smothering the fire.
